MEMOIRS.

REV. M. V. SHERRILL.

BY FRANK H. WOOD.

The subject of this sketch was born in Lincoln county, N. C., November 7, 1837, and died at Denver, November 24, 1902, aged 65 years and 17 days.

Brother Sherrill joined the Church under the ministry of Rev. R. P. Gibb, in 1853. He was appointed class leader in 1859 by Rev. W. C. Gannon. He was licensed to exhort by the Iredell Circuit Quarterly Conference, at Snow Creek in August, 1860, Rev. W. H. Bobbitt, Presiding Elder, and Wilfred Turner, Secretary. He was licensed to preach by the Quarterly Conference of the same charge at Trinity church, 1861. He was ordained deacon in Raleigh, N. C., by Bishop Early, December 10, 1865, and elder at Wilmington by Bishop Doggett, December 1, 1867. His first charge was the Blue Ridge Mission, in 1863, supplying the vacancy caused by the death of Rev. John M. Gunn.

He was paralyzed July 26, 1893. Since that time he sustained a superannuated relation, but has preached 178 times. His last sermon was at Marvin church, Rock Spring Circuit, from Ezekiel 18:6.

Brother Sherrill was a very humble and modest man. He never pushed himself into notice. He was willing to occupy such a place in the Conference as the authorities adjudged him entitled to. He was satisfied to be estimated at his true worth. Hence he always went cheerfully to his work, and you never heard him complaining that he was not appreciated. He did not belong to that small class of Methodist preachers who believed there was a clique in the Conference who sought to advance and keep to the front a favored few, and to keep in the background others who were much more competent than they. His modesty was such as to make the impression on those who did not know him intimately that he was timid and fearful, while, in fact, he had very strong convictions and had the "courage of his convictions." Indeed, being always deliberate, there was, perhaps, no one who held more tenaciously, but modestly, to his convictions than he. Being persuaded of the correctness of his views, he dared to maintain them anywhere and in any presence. He was possessed of very high moral courage.

He was a very quiet man. He moved along through the world on the "even tenor of his way" without much noise. Ordinarily, socially, he was a very reticent man, but with congenial spirits a most genial and companionable associate—vivacious, humorous, entertaining and instructive. He was my father's pastor for some years. During the time, my father in writing me, made allusion to him, saying that the only complaint he had heard against their pastor was, that perhaps "he did not talk as much as he ought." But my father remarked that he doubted very much whether that was an objection—that "most men talked too much."

Brother Sherrill was a faithful, conscientious, painstaking, efficient pastor, doing all the work of a Methodist preacher in a most creditable manner, and always to the profit of the church. It has been my fortune to follow him on a few occasions, and I have always found the church records left in better shape by him than any preacher I have ever followed. He also always made it a point to get up the historical record of the charge.

Brother Sherrill was a student. He gave much more "attention to reading" than the most of men—the most of preachers. He had a great fondness for books, but read only the best authors. He had true literary taste, and through his life acquired a large fund of most valuable knowledge. His attainments were such as to enable him to represent in a most creditable manner the Methodist Church anywhere, and under all circumstances. No Methodist ever had cause to blush for him or his church when its cause was entrusted to his keeping. He loved his church "above his chief joy," and was jealous for her honor. Whoever assailed his church in his presence always found a foe "worthy his steel."

As a preacher he was above the average. I never heard him preach but that his sermon was well prepared and well delivered—sometimes with great moral power, and always in a most acceptable manner. He had great fondness for poetry and rhetoric, and used both to great advantage in his sermons. His rhetoric was wellnigh perfect, and his quotations always apposite and effective. In doctrine, his sermons were thoroughly Arminian. He followed the authorities, not blindly or slavishly, but because the interpretation of the great scheme of atonement and redemption as set forth by Wesley, Watson and Fletcher commended itself to his intelligent perception and the approval of his heart, as it must do to the intelligent heart of every unprejudiced mind. Being a great admirer of the Institutes of Mr. Watson and a close student thereof, his sermons had a solid framework, were muscular and furnished the appetite with a pabulum that nourished the spiritual man, making it robust and strong. The theology which he taught was not of that "namby pamby" sort of which you hear so much in these modern times, which is remarkable for nothing but its jingle and its utter insipidity. His ministry was a fruitful one, carrying comfort to many sorrowing hearts, help to those who needed help, instruction to the ignorant and the cup of salvation to hundreds, and perhaps thousands, who were famished and were ready to die.

And withal, Brother Sherrill was genuinely spiritual. He did not put his religion on exhibition or parade it about "to be seen of men," but constantly and uniformly exemplified the beauty and simplicity of the religion of Christ. No one who knew him could ever call in question the purity of his Christian character. For a number of years before his death he was the child of affliction, suffering from partial paralysis. But notwithstanding his great suffering and disqualification for the active ministry, yet the equability of his temper was not at all disturbed nor the sweetness of his spirit marred. He was always hopeful, bright, joyful and full of zeal for the cause he so much loved. Thus through all these years did he bear himself with a fortitude that was beautiful to behold, and that was truly heroic, until near the close of the last session of our Conference in Monroe, the Lord of the harvest graciously released the reaper and called him to his reward in the skies. We will cherish his memory, imitate his good example, and by and by, through grace, greet him in the "sun-bright clime."

REV. J. J. HAVNER.

BY M. T. STEEL.

Rev. Joseph John Havner was born December 9, 1869. He joined the Western North Carolina Conference, at Winston, in 1892. He served as junior preacher to Rev. M. T. Steele, on the Lincolnton Circuit, during the year 1893. He was discontinued, at his own request, at the Conference of that year, in order to more thoroughly equip himself for the work of the itinerant ministry. He then went to school at Catawba College, Newton, N. C. He was an effective local preacher, always a friend and helper of his pastor.

He was ordained Deacon by Bishop Key, at the Conference in Asheville in 1897.

He served Mooresville, as a supply in 1899, from May until Conference of that year. He joined the Western North Carolina Conference in 1899 at Concord, N. C., and was admitted into full connection at Gastonia in 1901. He served the following charges, viz:

1900—Mooresville Circuit.

1901-2—Troutman Circuit.

1903—Matthews Circuit until his death.

During the year he was on Mooresville Circuit fifty-three members were added to the church on profession of faith. During his two years on the Troutman Circuit one hundred and eleven members were received on profession of faith.

The people were glad to hear him preach, his sermons were instructive and stimulating to the faith of his hearers. He was adapted to revival work by both nature and grace.

His sanguine temperament gave him confidence in everybody. He was not capable of holding suspicious thoughts about anyone. There was nothing artificial in his life. He always carried about him a most pleasant type of childlike simplicity which was perfectly natural to him.

His faith in God was always strong and steady. He never trifled with the Bible. He accepted it as God's inspired Word, and whatever it teaches he believed without any questions.

As a preacher he was careful in the preparation of his sermons and took his sermon material from the Bible and arranged it systematically. His sermons were always clear, practical and effective. He was sent from the Conference at Monroe last year to Matthews. He proved to be the very man for the place. The people soon saw in him the leader they needed. Their hearts went out to him in love and confidence. They loved him and he loved them. They went to work unitedly to build a new church. The old building was removed from the grounds, and new and larger foundations laid for a church of modern style. The frame was up and nearly weatherboarded. But here the sad and mysterious providence in the death of Brother Havner came down in a night of sorrow on the whole community. He was sick only a few days. His suffering was intense, but God was with him and he suffered patiently and died in triumph on Saturday morning, April the 18th, 1903. Age, 33 years, 4 months and 9 days. He was buried at Matthews, the funeral service being conducted by Dr. J. C. Rowe.

We feel sure that his spirit is now crowned with joy in the presence of Jesus. But while we rejoice in the crowning of our brother, our hearts bend down in sympathy with sister Havner in her young widowhood, and the three little children in their orphanhood.

REV. C. G. LITTLE.

BY R. D. SHERRILL.

Rev. Colin George Little was born in Catawba County, N. C., July 10h, 1851, and died in Marion, McDowell County, N. C., Sunday, May 24th, 1903. He was fifty-one years of age, having been a member of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences for a little more than twenty-three years.

He was one of a family of eleven children, six of whom, three brothers and three sisters, survive him. As a child he was good, never inclined to be wild, but religious.

He was converted at Balls Creek camp ground at twelve years of age. He attended school at Catawba College, and I am told graduated from Rutherford College in 1878. He preached his first sermon at Stanley Creek church in Gaston County. He was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference at Wilson in 1879, and served the two Conferences in the following charges: McDowell Circuit, 1880; Elkin Circuit, 1881; Statesville Circuit, 1882-3; Stokes Circuit, 1884-5; McDowell Circuit, (second time), 1886-7-8; Rutherfordton Circuit, 1889-90; Hendersonville Station, 1891; Hickory and Lenoir Station, 1892-3; Matthews Circuit, 1894; Wadesboro Station, 1895; Shelby Station, 1896-7; Connelly Springs Circuit, 1898; Lexington Station, 1899; Morganton District, 1900-'01.

He was returned to the Morganton District for the third year from the Conference at Gastonia, but was stricken with a severe attack of pneumonia in January, '92. This developed into consumption, of which he died after a brave struggle for life. He preached his last sermon at Rutherfordton, January 12th, 1902, not thinking, doubtless, that that was to be his last public ministration. That he was forced to lay down the active work of the ministry was a source of regret and grief to him, as it is to most ministers when they come to this trying experience. At one time with great fervor, he expressed to Bro. J. W. Jones and the writer the wish that he might join us again in the active work of the Master.

Brother Little's zeal and energy were always greater than his physical strength. These sometimes propelled to work when his physical strength was not equal to the task. One who was in a position to know the facts says of him: "He never let anything keep him from an appointment if it were possible for him to fill it. Nothing but his own sickness ever kept him from going. I have known him to get out of bed when sick, drive several miles, sit in a chair and preach. None but his immediate family know what he endured for the cause. I have known him to go into the pulpit and preach when he thought his own child would be dead before the sermon was finished." These facts indicate the spirit of the true preacher, and Brother Little's fidelity to what he conceived to be his duty as a minister.

I was closely associated with him for four years. I knew him well. He was a good man, a religious man. He loved his Lord, his church, the ministry, and he loved sinners. During the last year of his ministry especially there was a marked solicitude for the salvation of the lost, manifested in his prayers and preaching.

His work on the Morganton District was eminently successful. Each one of the two years the District made a fine report, showing a gratifying advance on all lines of church work. The Conference placed its seal of approval upon his work by returning him for the third year. He died praying, "Thy will be done," and is gone to the "rest that remaineth to the people of God."

On May 17th, 1880, he was married to Miss Ada Connelly, of McDowell County. To them five children were born, three daughters and two sons. Of these four survive, with their widowed mother, to mourn the loss of a kind husband and father. He has gone home.

REV. S. D. STAMEY.

BY F. L. TOWNSEND.

The subject of this sketch, the Rev. S. D. Stamey, was the son of the Rev. Alexander and Belzora Stamey. He was brother to the late Rev. P. F. W. Stamey, of honored and sainted memory. He was born at Woodlawn, Carroll County, Virginia, in the month of April, 1870, and died July 22d, 1903, at the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. S. F. Brannock, near Higgins P. O., Grayson County, Virginia, where he spent the last months of his earthly life. His body was buried near the grave of his beloved father at Snow Hill (Missionary) Baptist church in the same community where he died. Here on the very crest of the Blue Ridge Mountains rest his precious ashes until the second coming of his Lord who shall give him part in the resurrection of the just.

Brother Stamey was converted to Christ at the age of seventeen under the preaching of Rev. E. J. Adams, of the (Missionary) Baptist church, at Corinth church, Surry County, North Carolina. He soon after joined the same denomination at Snow Hill, Virginia, but afterward connected himself with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and promptly sought and obtained license to preach the Gospel. Feeling that a call to preach implied a call to preparation, he began at once to seek an education at such schools as were within his reach. His training consisted of such help as he could get at the schools at Elk Creek, Virginia, and Trap Hill, North Carolina. After doing Conference work for a few years, and feeling the need of more thorough preparation, with commendable earnestness he did college work at Guilford College, North Carolina, while serving as preacher in charge of Jamestown Circuit.

He was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference at its session in Winston, in the fall of 1892, and was placed in charge of Henrietta Station for the year 1893.

At the close of that year he was ordained deacon by Bishop W. W. Duncan and placed in charge of Chestnut Hill, Salisbury, N. C., for the year 1894. After this his work was as follows:

Burkhead Station, Winston, 1895—1896.

He was ordained elder by Bishop C. B. Galloway, and placed in charge of Jamestown Circuit 1897.

His next work was

Wilkes Circuit, 1898.

Naomi Station, 1899—1900.

Finding his health failing on account of pulmonary afflictions he was transferred to Los Angeles Conference and stationed at Carlsbad, New Mexico, 1901.

Here he suffered a gradual decline in health until in the fall of 1902, he was transferred back to the Western North Carolina Conference, and returned east to finish his days with his kindred in Western North Carolina and Virginia. And it was no small pleasure to him to see again his aged mother, his sisters and brothers, and have them minister to him in his sickness, and hand him down gently as they did to his last resting place.

He was first married to Miss Laura Parks, of Roaring River, N. C., a woman of excellent piety and Christian helpfulness, who died in 1898. He afterwards married Miss Jennie Russell, a woman of fine culture and strong character of Randleman, N. C. By a strange providence she also was stricken with lung trouble while they were in New Mexico and returned to Western North Carolina and died just three days prior to his death.

By each of these marriages he leaves a child who should have as an heritage the love and sympathy of his brethren of the ministry. He was devoted to his children, and often in his last illness spoke of them and his deep interest in them.

As a preacher of the gospel, Brother Stamey was an earnest exponent of the "truth as it is in Jesus." His style was nervous and interesting. He was a close student and was making full proof of his ministry.

He was a devoted Christian. His love for God was fervent. His religion was of a positive, progressive sort. He could give a reason for the hope that was in him. He believed in the witness of the Spirit, and his assurance of faith grew brighter and brighter to the end.

He was conscious to the last, closing up as well as he could his business, even making provision for his funeral and burial services, and speaking confidently of his hopes for the future to his dear ones around him, bidding them meet him in heaven. Truly may it be said that he served his generation by the will of God and fell on sleep.

REV. W. C. WILLSON.

BY W. L. SHERRILL.

Rev. William Chalmers Willson was born near Mocksville, Davie County, N. C., April 7th, 1836, and died in the Circuit parsonage in Mocksville, August 19th, 1903, in his 68th year.

Brother Willson was converted in young manhood, joined the Methodist Church and was an active Christian from that time onward. He was prepared for college at Jonesville Academy and graduated from Trinity College in June, 1861. Very soon thereafter he was licensed to preach by the Davie Quarterly Conference, and rendered faithful service as a local preacher, but early in 1862 he volunteered into the Confederate Army and was commissioned Second Lieutenant in Co. F., 42nd North Carolina Regiment. He was a brave soldier, and in the spring 1893, in an encounter with "Buffaloes" on Chowan River in Eastern Carolina, he was dangerously wounded, being physically unable afterward to render field service, but acted as chaplain to his troops until December of that year, when, at Greensboro, he was admitted on trial into the North Carolina Conference, and from that time—full forty years—to the day of his death, he was a regular itinerant preacher and served the following charges:

1864—Hillsboro.	1883-4, 5, 6—Davie (now Farmington).
1865—Chapel Hill.	1887-8—Mocksville.
1866-7—Hillsboro.	1889-90, 91—Thomasville.
1868—Supernumerary.	1892—Supernumerary.
1869—Thomasville.	1893-94—Centre and Salem.
1870—Thomasville, High Point.	1895-96—Kernersville.
1871-2—Marion.	1897-8—Mount Holly.
1873-4, 5—Supernumerary.	1899-'00—Burkhead, Winston
1876-7, 8, 9—Davie.	1901-2, 3—Davie Circuit.
1880-1—Supernumerary.
1882—Salisbury Circuit.

In 1865 he was ordained deacon at Raleigh by Bishop Early, and in 1867, at Wilmington, he was, by Bishop Doggett, ordained Elder.

On 21st May, 1867, he was married to Miss Alice J. Long, of Greensboro, who still lives.

Bro. Willson possessed superior mental gifts, strong convictions and fearless courage. He was an open, generous, manly man who had strong faith in God, and believed with all his soul that God had called him to his high and holy office. And God rewarded this confidence in giving him grace and wisdom so to preach the truth as that his labors were wondrously blessed of God in the saving of sinners, for hundreds and thousands were led to the Savior through his ministry. He was a teacher who believed the doctrine was from God, and he had the faith to so present the Word that men believed it was the truth of God to their salvation.

He loved the Church and all the Church stands for, and was able to defend it and its doctrines with convincing argument.

Brother Willson was not only a loyal and useful churchman, but also a public spirited and progressive citizen of the Commonwealth. While never a politician, he was always ready to help in every movement that tended to the material betterment of the community. He was largely instrumental in the building of the North Carolina Midland Railway from Winston to Mooresville, and was one of its directors at the time of his death.

For many years, too, he was a Trustee of Trinity College, and through all the struggles of his Alma Mater he has been one of her most constant friends. He was a bright Mason, a brave soldier, a wide-awake citizen and a strong preacher, and was always ready at a moment's warning to speak, and to speak well, for any cause he loved.

His home life was beautiful, and his devotion to his invalid wife was the admiration of all his friends.

Full half of his ministerial service was spent in his native county among the friends of his earlier days and for the past three years he has served the Davie Circuit.

During these three years I have been closely associated with him and have learned to appreciate his virtues and to love him as a brother in the gospel. For two years past he declined in health, but he rarely failed to meet his appointments. He preached his last sermon at Liberty on July 12th, but at the close was completely exhausted. Despite his feebleness he went to Salem the next Sunday, but was too weak to conduct the service. Frequently I visited him in his sickness and it was inspiring to see how strong was his faith in Christ.

He wanted to live and preach if it was the will of God, but he was willing to abide his Father's will.

The end came in the early morning of August 19th, when he laid down his armour and passed on to his reward.

On the following day in the presence of a large gathering of friends in the Mocksville Church the funeral service was conducted by D. Atkins, C. M. Campbell, J. B. Craven and the writer, after which the body was committed to his brethren of the Masonic order, who buried it in the Mocksville cemetery.

MRS. MARGARET ATKINSON STACY.

Mrs. Margaret Atkinson Stacy, late wife of Rev. L. E. Stacy, was born in Davie County, N. C., March 25, 1870. Professed faith in Christ in early childhood and joined the Methodist Church. She was on 27th June, 1895, married to Rev. L. E. Stacy, and died on 14th June, 1903. She lived a beautiful Christian life and passed away triumphantly and in great peace.

APPENDIX.

REPORT NUMBER ONE.

The Board of Education respectfully submits the following special report:

After giving careful consideration to a proposition submitted to us by the Alumnae Association of Greensboro Female College to the effect that this institution be placed under the control of a Board of Trustees consisting of three members from the Western North Carolina Conference, three from the North Carolina Conference, and three to be named by the Alumnae Association, we hereby recommend the acceptance of this plan, and name as the trustees from this Conference Mr. Charles H. Ireland, I. I. Davis and M. D. Stockton.

This action to be in full force when the plan is adopted by the North Carolina Conference.

(Signed)

M. A. SMITH,
Secretary pro tem for the Board of Education.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Communications from the following institutions have received our painstaking consideration: Trinity College, Greensboro Female College, Rutherford College, Davenport Female College, Weaverville College, Correspondence School at Nashville, Lewisville Academy and Brevard Industrial School.

These several reports clearly indicate an increased patronage and a steadily growing prosperity on the part of all these institutions.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY.

This institution stands at the head of the educational system of Southern Methodism. Its benign influence permeates every section of our great Southland; not only so, it reaches many other sections of the country and extends to foreign lands. We cordially commend it to all seeking the best and highest culture.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

This institution continues to move steadily onward in its career of usefulness. Its present enrollment—375, including the High School—is the largest in its history.

In its patronage it embraces all classes, conditions and vocations. The cosmopolitan character of the student body is scarcely more pronounced than the catholic spirit evinced by its teaching forces. The management seeks less to avoid criticism than to discharge faithfully and conscientiously its duty to enlightened culture and Christian education.

We are gratified to learn from the report of the Trustees that the work being done at the college is up to the usual standard, and that the organization of all the departments was never before as good as it is now.

WEAVERVILLE COLLEGE.

We are informed, through a report sent us by the President, that "the work of the past session was very satisfactory; that the enrollment was 138 pupils; that the faculty consists of eight capable and effective members, and that the main buildings are in good repair and the school is now believed to be on the best working basis possible."

RUTHERFORD COLLEGE.

This school has seven members in its faculty and 181 pupils on its roll. During the past year considerable improvement has been made on the exterior of the building. This, with the interior repairs to be made at an early day, will put the building in excellent condition. Ideal in location, we are not surprised to learn from its President that "Rutherford College is growing in favor among our people."

DAVENPORT FEMALE COLLEGE.

From a report of the Board of Trustees to this Conference, we are pleased to announce that "under the efficient management of its President, Dr. Weaver, aided by a very strong faculty, the work being done in the different departments of the college is of a high order and is giving entire satisfaction to the patrons of the school." The buildings, during the year closing, have been enlarged and greatly improved. About 200 pupils have matriculated during the present session, forty of whom board in the institution, and quite a number of others board in the town. The present attendance is the largest the college has had in twenty-five years, and its friends are greatly encouraged by signs of increasing prosperity.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

This grand old institution, so near the heart of many a mother and grandmother in North Carolina Methodism, has recently had to wrestle with the storms, but it is believed that her bending before the blast has best caused her roots to strike deeper into the affections of the people. Under the new arrangement, as outlined in Report No. 1 of this Board, we confidently predict a career of usefulness equal to the best in her brilliant past. The intensely religious tone that has always pervaded this school, the refined manners and high moral quality of the student body commend this institution to those thoughtful parents who wish the safest environment for their daughters during the character-forming period of life.

BREVARD INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

This school has been taken in charge by the Woman's Home Mission Society and has a unique place in our system of education, and deserves the fostering care of the liberal and kindly disposed. Considerable improvements have been made upon the buildings during the past year, and its friends are hopeful that in the near future this school will be upon a stable basis, ready to enter effectively upon its career of love and help to the unfortunate and needy indigent.

TRINITY HIGH SCHOOL.

This institution continues to do good work, and under the efficient management of its head master, Professor Henry, it merits and receives the patronage and appreciation of the community. With elegant buildings, in good repair, unencumbered by debt and enjoying a location of great beauty and healthfulness, surrounded by hallowed memories of a sad but brilliant past, this school deserves large prosperity.

In the case of the memorial seeking the appointment of a new and independent Board of Trustees, your Board of Education recommends non-concurrence.

TRINITY PARK HIGH SCHOOL.

This is a fitting school of a high order. Possessing the finest appointment, it is the equal of any school of its class in the country, and worthy of a generous patronage.

LOTLA HIGH SCHOOL.

In regard to this school your Board recommends that the Conference Trustees make a deed for this property to the original owners.

CORRESPONDENCE SCHOOL OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH.

This school "has for its aim—

"1. To aid the young preachers of the Church who are pursuing the regular four years' Conference course of study by giving them the benefits of regular and systematic instruction covering that course.

"2. To furnish, as far as possible, the advantages of a thorough theological course to those who are not so situated as to be able to pursue their studies in residence at the seminary.

"3. To assist those who have completed such a course, as well as others, by enabling them, through regular courses of study, to keep in touch with the newest religious and theological thought.

"4. To be of service in some degree to local preachers, Sunday-school teachers, Epworth League leaders, deaconesses and other lay workers, who may desire to fit themselves for more efficient service by pursuing systematic courses of Bible study," etc.

The number of students now upon its roll is 253. "In the character of the work, as well as in the number of the students, the year has been a very successful one." The arrangements for the work of the coming year are practically complete and the prospects indicate a much larger number of students than during the year just past.

The instructors in this school are Drs. Kirkland and Tillett, aided by seven other professors in the Vanderbilt University.

We most heartily commend to all our people desiring the instruction peculiar to this school.

We recommend that this Conference accept the certificates of this school in lieu of the Conference examinations.

We recommend also that this Conference instruct its Secretary to forward to Professor Cuninggim, Nashville, Tenn., the names and post-office addresses of all the undergraduates of this Conference, and that he do this immediately after this session adjourns.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We recommend the following:

1. That J. H. Bennett be appointed a student at Emory and Henry College, Virginia.

2. That J. T. Erwin be appointed a student at Vanderbilt University.

3. That Dr. C. C. Weaver be appointed President of Davenport Female College.

4. That the following be made Trustees of Davenport Female College: Dr. W. P. Ivey, A. N. Todd and J. B. Atkinson.

5. That the following be appointed Trustees of Trinity College: Colonel J. W. Alsbaugh, W. R. Odell, J. A. Gray, F. Stikeleather, O. W. Carr, R. A. Mayer—terms to expire December 31, 1909.

6. That P. T. Durham be appointed a Professor in Trinity College and that S. A. Stewart be appointed a Professor in Trinity Park High School.

7. That the following be appointed Trustee of Rutherford College: Dr. J. H. Weaver, Rev. R. M. Hoyle, Rev. L. L. Smith and J. D. Glass, to succeed themselves; D. E. Hudgins, to succeed Dr. J. W. Long; Dr. W. L. Abernethy, to succeed Dr. J. T. Johnson, and Rev. C. M. Campbell to succeed R. P. Walker, resigned; the Rev. L. A. Falls, to succeed C. G. Little, deceased, and P. H. Hanes, to succeed Phillip Hanes, deceased.

8. That an educational assessment of $6,000.00 be made, and that the same be divided as follows: Three hundred dollars to the Secretary of the General Board of Education; $250 to Trinity High School for the purpose of purchasing desks and that the remainder be equally divided among the following institutions—viz.: Trinity College, to pay premiums on insurance; Rutherford College, to pay on indebtedness now outstanding; Davenport Female College, to be used for permanent improvements; Brevard Epworth School, to pay on debts now outstanding; Greensboro Female College, to pay interest on bonds, and Weaverville College, to pay on present indebtedness of the school.

We further recommend that all the above named amounts be prorated on the basis of the amount collected.

9. That the third Sunday in June be observed as Educational Day. We wish to emphasize the importance of all our preachers giving this day, and the cause for which it stands, deserving consideration by preaching a special sermon and taking a collection, as provided for in section 412 of the Discipline.

10. That all our people be urged to co-operate with the Sunday schools in the observance of Children's Day.

We are thankful to report that the collection for Church Extension during the past year has been an increase over all preceding years. However, we still have in our Conference one hundred and one societies without houses of worship and many others uncompleted and some in debt, which need, and should have, help from our Board. The Board would most earnestly appeal to our beloved Conference for at least the full amount of $5,288.00 assessed our Conference for the coming year.

J. A. BOWLES,
Secretary.

G. W. FLOWERS,
President Pro Tem.

The Board reviews the following report and requests its publication in our Journal:

REPORT OF WOMAN'S HOME MISSION SOCIETY OF THE WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE, NOVEMBER 11, 1903.

The Lord has wonderfully blessed the efforts of the Woman's Home Mission Society to do good along all lines which they have undertaken during the past fiscal year.

They made the following report at the last meeting of the Board, which was held in Atlanta, April 17, 1903:

"The Lord of the harvest has been gracious to us this year, and to Him we would give thanks for blessings all the way. The growth in membership during the year has been 2,410, with a corresponding increase in the collection of dues.

STATISTICS OF WORK.

"Adult auxiliaries, 1,622; adult members, 28,551; young people and juvenile auxiliaries, 149; young people and juvenile members, 2,863; total members, 31,414; Baby-Roll members, 8,074; day schools, 7; night schools, 4; pupils in schools, 1,324; teachers and missionaries, 58; parsonages helped by Conference Societies, 81; parsonages helped by the Board, 31; total parsonages helped this fiscal year, 112; collections for connectional work, $55,522.03; collections for local work, $32,163.11; value of supplies sent out through the Supply Department, $14,309.11; subscribers to Our Home, 8,188.

PARSONAGES.

"Help has been granted to 112 parsonages this year, amounting to $11,103.17. The Board gave $4,625.00 to thirty-one parsonages, while the Conference Societies donated $6,478.17 to eighty-one. This is the largest appropriation ever made to this cause.

SUPPLIES

"This Department has sent 162 boxes to preachers, 223 to orphanages, 50 to schools and rescue homes, making a total number sent, 435, valued at $14,309.11. A greater number were sent to orphanages, but those sent to preachers were more valuable.

SCHOOLS.

"Eleven educational centers are enterprised by the Board, bringing 1,324 scholars under instruction.

"The three schools for Cubans in Tampa, Ybor City and Key West, Fla., under the direction of fifteen teachers, have enrolled 480 children.

The Sue Bennett Memorial School in the mountains of South-eastern Kentucky has accommodated 327 students. Two score were denied entrance because of inadequate quarters. The normal class numbered seventy-six, many of whom will teach in the district schools during the summer and fall. More than one hundred of the students were "born again" during the year.

"The Industrial Home and School at Greenville, Tenn., has given fostering care to sixty children during the year. A new building has been erected for the smaller children, which increases the capacity and comfort of the school.

On the Pacific coast 207 Chinese and Japanese have attended our four night schools. Eleven Japanese have embraced Christianity and united with the Church since October.

"Two cottages for the Industrial Department are in course of construction at Paine College, Augusta, Ga. During the year 122 negro girls have been under the instruction of the teacher of this department.

"New work has been enterprised among the Choctaw Indians of Mississippi.

RESCUE WORK.

"The large rescue plant at Dallas, Texas, has furnished refuge for 109 girls this year.

CITY MISSIONS.

"Twelve City Mission Boards have enterprised work during the past year, employing a force of sixteen missionaries. These young women have gone into more than 10,000 homes, carrying comfort and Christian sympathy to sorrowing hearts. Three day nurses have cared for more than 4,000 young children whose mothers were toiling as bread winners. Four kindergartens have nurtured 200 little ones. Industrial schools at each point have revealed to 4,000 children the comfort of knowing how to sew and cook. Three night schools have furnished opportunity for ambitious youths to carry forward studies which were cut short by being forced to enter the world of labor. Mothers' clubs, reading rooms, girls' and boys' clubs have furnished social outlets where every influence has been uplifting. Wandering girls have been rescued from a life of sin and the Christ has been set in the midst."

REPORT OF EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

The pastors' reports show a decrease of one in the number of Leagues; a decrease of 503 in membership; a decrease of five Senior Leagues; an increase of four Junior Leagues. The total amount contributed by the Leagues this year is $1,809.49, an increase of $130.27 over last year.

We are sorry to know of this decline in the League in our Conference, but it does not shake our faith in its adaptability to the needs of the Church at the present time.

We are glad to note from the report of our General Secretary, Dr. Du Bose, that this has been the most prosperous year in the history of the League. The Epworth Era is now almost self-supporting. The plans and purposes of the League are assuming more definite shape. It is destined to become the life school of the Church. The Epworth League must be fostered by our pastors.

We would call the attention of the pastors to the "League Institute Series" on Church history, doctrines, biography, missions, etc., being brought out by the central office. We would especially urge that Bible study classes be formed among our young people. The need of having the minds of our young people stored with Bible truths, we believe, can not be overestimated.

We recommend the holding of District League Conferences in every district, either independent of, or in connection with, the District Conference. If in connection with the District Conference let at least one whole day be given to the interests of the League. We recommend the appointment of an Epworth League Secretary for each district, who shall have general oversight of the interests of the League in his own district, keeping in touch with the Leagues and helping to organize new ones whenever possible. On the nomination of the Presiding Elders, we offer the following names as League secretaries: Asheville District, Edwin L. Brown, Jr., Asheville, N. C.; Charlotte District, Dr. H. D. Stewart, Monroe, N. C.; Franklin District, T. J. Johnson, Franklin, N. C.; Greensboro District, V. G. A. Idol, High Point, N. C.; Morganton District, W. F. Wood, Marion, N. C.; Mt. Airy District, Professor J. D. Minick, Mt. Airy, N. C.; Salisbury District, P. N. Peacock, Salisbury, N. C.; Shelby District, Joseph H. Separk, Gastonia, N. C.; Statesville District, E. G. Gaither, Statesville, N. C.; Waynesville District, Rev. C. P. Moore, Brevard, N. C.; Winston District, Robert B. Crawford, Winston, N. C.

E. K. McLARTY,
Secretary.

J. A. B. FRY,
President.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

The statistics reported to the Conference show that we now have 137 Sunday schools, an increase of one this year, and 61,000 members now on the rolls, a net gain of only 250. If the statistics have been accurately reported and tabulated we think our increase in the number of schools and members has been far too small, and we urge that special efforts be made to show a much larger gain at the close of the coming year.

We note that $2,805.48 have been contributed to missions by our schools, an increase of $26.00 over last year.

We desire to call special attention to the importance of our pastors establishing Sunday schools in wayside and destitute places, and request that they draw upon our Treasurer, D. B. Coltrane, of Concord, for money sufficient to pay for the literature necessary to supply any school that is unable to provide it.

We urge our pastors to do all in their power to organize Bible Teachers' Study Circles, and that we recommend the holding of Sunday School Institutes wherever the Chairman and Secretary of our Board think it can be done to advantage, and, if necessary, the expenses incurred be paid out of any funds that may be at the time in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

We recommend further that a Sunday School Conference be held in each Presiding Elder's district, and that programmes and speakers be provided by the President and Secretary of the Board and the Presiding Elder of the district, and the necessary expenses paid out of any money in the treasury.

We urge our Presiding Elders and pastors to make a special effort this year to keep all our schools running through both summer and winter, and to organize schools and Bible classes wherever ten persons can be gotten to attend.

L. W. CRAWFORD,
Chairman.

1. That W. H. Willis be appointed Conference Secretary.
2. That W. L. Grissom be appointed Field Secretary.
3. In view of the consolidation of Go Forward and The Review of Missions, and the very small subscription price of 25 cents, we recommend a thorough canvass of all the charges in behalf of Go Forward.

We recommend that there be held a mid-year meeting during the month of April, place and programme to be arranged by the Executive Committee, consisting of C. H. Ireland, W. H. Willis and H. H. Jordan.

The attention of the Conference is called to "A Plan for City Evangelization," inaugurated by the Parent Board at its last session, and pastors interested in a more aggressive and comprehensive system of city missions can obtain constitutions for "Boards of City Missions" from the secretaries at Nashville. The Board passed the following resolutions:

1. That we direct that all pastors receiving aid from this Board shall use in their Sunday schools only the literature prepared by our own Church.

Resolved, 2. That the Board directs that money collected for the Moose Fund shall not be credited on deficits in the assessments, but reported as special.

The Board has assessed upon this Conference for the ensuing year for domestic missions $8,500.00 and for foreign missions $14,800.00, and these amounts will be apportioned to the several districts by the Joint Board of Finance and reported to this Conference.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

We shall not here discuss the value of good literature. For every one with even a fair degree of intelligence is well aware that the reading matter of any people is one of the most potent forces in shaping their character. And in this age characterized by so much worthless and even hurtful stuff called literature, it becomes the duty of the Church, through its ministry and intelligent laity, to direct the attention of the people to that which is good, and to urge that they read only such. And if the preacher has a large knowledge of books the people will give heed to his opinion upon this subject. Let the ministry know the world's literature and teach the people wisely.

All the best books may be had of our Publishing House at Nashville, Tenn., and at the lowest prices. There is no better place to buy books.

Your committee would call especial attention to the periodicals coming from our Publishing House. The Methodist Quarterly Review, "devoted to religion and philosophy, science and literature," ought to be in the hands of every preacher and every layman who makes any pretensions to intelligence. Take the Review if you want something good.

The Christian Advocate maintains its former high standard and is worthy of a large patronage. Our people ought to read the general organ of our great Church. All our Sunday school literature is equal to the best and no other should be used by Methodist people. If not able to buy, it will be provided "without money and without price." The people who refuse to use it because it is too high, as they say, ought to be honest enough to get some other excuse. We desire to commend to all the "Children's Visitor, a paper filled with valuable and interesting reading that all our young people ought to have.

The Epworth League "Reading Course" contains books of great value. These have the unqualified endorsement of your committee.

We note with great pleasure the success of the North Carolina Christian Advocate. This paper, the organ of the Western North Carolina Conference, has enjoyed a prosperous year, and the prospects for the future are flattering.

The accounts of the Publishing Company were audited on Saturday, November 7th, 1903, by Dr. Dred Peacock, representing the Publishing Committee and the stockholders. The business was found in good condition. And at the stockholders' meeting the Treasurer's report showed a net profit for the year of $690.63. This reduced the amount of indebtedness from $1,225.35 last year to $592.35 this year.

The Editor reports that the point of weakness is the delinquent habit of subscribers. Instead of paying in advance as they should, large numbers of our very best people follow the rule of paying at the end of the year, and many allow their subscriptions to go unpaid for two years at a time.

There must be a movement inaugurated for the increase of the circulation of the paper and for the reforming of our people in the matter of promptness. Many of the largest items of expense are practically the same, with many or few subscribers. We have a circulation of 4,200, but should strive to make it at least 6,000. It can and ought to be done.

January is designated as Advocate month, and the pastors are urged to make the claims of the paper prominent and to secure all the new subscribers possible.

We have in Rev. H. M. Blair, the Editor, a man level headed and painstaking, who does not fear labor. His toil during the past year has been incessant, and he has wrought well. We approve his work with all our hearts, and would pledge him the support of the entire Conference.

Upon nomination of the Publishing Committee we recommend that F. Stikeleather be elected on said committee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James Buttrick. We also recommend that Rev. H. M. Blair be Editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate for the ensuing year.

A. W. PLYLER, Chairman.

G. W. HINSHAW, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

People generally admit that intemperance does great injury to life in many departments: in material things, in the home life, in social and political life, in physical, intellectual, and spiritual life.

Therefore we express our gratitude for the growth of temperance sentiment in some Southern States, especially in North Carolina. Let us pray and work for further growth.

We recommend the circulation and reading of temperance literature as one of the best methods of creating and maintaining temperance sentiment.

We are grateful for the temperance legislation already enacted in North Carolina. We beseech temperance people to make good use of these laws, with special reference to the three following points:

1. Hold the prohibition territory already gained.

2. Work for prohibition in the towns and cities that now have dispensaries or saloons.

3. As far as possible see that alcoholic drinks are not sold in prohibition territory.

After making use of the legislation we now have, let us earnestly work for the enactment of more rigid temperance laws in the entire State, especially for laws that will make it easier to convict any violator of temperance laws.

We endorse the omni-partisan, inter-denominational work of the Anti-Saloon League. We recommend that a committee consisting of Rev. S. B. Turrentine, Rev. W. R. Ware, Rev. Frank Siler, Hon. J. D. McCall, and Dr. H. D. Stewart be appointed to co-operate with like committees of other religious bodies in the temperance movement in North Carolina.

We urge upon our people the observance of the law of our discipline upon this subject. We recommend that our pastors lay stress upon this law.

We believe that in a great many cases the use of tobacco, especially the cigarette, is detrimental. Therefore we are glad to see a growing sentiment against this use. We recommend that our young people avoid the tobacco habit.

J. A. REAGAN, Chairman.

J. R. WALKER, Secretary.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

Your Committee on Church Property beg leave to report as follows:

Number of Churches	730½
Increase of Churches	2½
Value of Churches	$1,038,644.95
Indebtedness	43,718.00
Increase	39,843.25
Number of Parsonages	155½
Increase	6
Value of Parsonages	$197,550.00
Indebtedness	15,616.20
Increase	364.95
Insurance on Churches and parsonages	297,555.00
Increase	51,008.00
Amount of premiums paid.....	1,138.12
Losses sustained	3,027.00
Collected on same	1,250.00

We recommend, as have previous committees, that all our churches and parsonages be insured in some good company.

We suggest that, whenever possible, an architect be employed to furnish plans for new churches.

Whereas the National Mutual Church Insurance Company of Chicago, Ill., has been recommended by the Board of Insurance of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and some of our people have insured their churches and parsonages therein, and since, information from reliable sources has been laid before your committee to the effect that said company is practically insolvent, and further, that said company is doing business in our State in direct violation of the insurance laws of the State, and as our Church in having any connection with this company becomes a party in the violation of the State laws, thus bringing reproach upon itself; therefore,

Resolved 1st. That we urge our people to cease doing business with or offering any encouragement to said company, and as soon as possible to cancel all policies held in this company.

Resolved 2nd. That the Secretary of our Conference is hereby requested to send a copy of these resolutions to Mr. W. F. Barclay, the Secretary of the Board of Insurance of our Church, and Mr. Jas. R. Young, Insurance Commissioner of North Carolina.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The Board begs leave to submit the following report:

In summing up the general reports as to what is being done for the world's speedy evangelization, the fact that the Word of God is preeminently the forerunner of all missionary effort is shown by the Bible Societies of the world to-day.

The needs are appalling. The demands are increasing, and can not possibly be supplied. Men are crying out, "Give us the Word that we may feast and be satisfied, and live forever." The American Bible Society has recently increased her publications of the Word this year. But in the face of this fact there is a falling off of receipts from auxiliaries and from individual donations, and legacies especially. And God is teaching us, through this, that the time has come when the rank and file of his army must individually feel the burden of his lost brother in this great enterprise. There is an increase of receipts from the general Church collections. There was an increase in this collection in this Conference last year. But there is a falling off this year.

We greatly rejoice in the $29,000 raised by this Conference this year for Missions. And this very attitude to which we have attained, itself, demands that this great complimentary work—the sending forth of the Word, languish not in our hands.

In the face of these facts we would present the following resolution:

WHEREAS, the British and Foreign Bible Society is now entering upon her Centennial Celebration, which begins the first Sabbath in March, 1904, and desires her honored sister Societies, so far as is possible, to observe this occasion in some way on the above date, by all the Churches of the English-speaking race; be it

Resolved, That the above date, the first Sabbath in March next, be observed by all the preachers of this Conference, as Bible Day; that the cause be prayerfully and faithfully presented, and that a special collection be taken, and on circuits the cause be presented and collections be taken on the Sabbath following until the cause be presented to every congregation. This Board furnishing the necessary information.

(Signed) G. G. HARLEY, Chairman.

J. H. BRENDALL, Secretary.

THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE SUPERANNUATED PREACHERS' ENDOWMENT FUND.

We have had under careful consideration the matter referred to us and submit the following:

The movement inaugurated by our last General Conference to raise a large endowment fund which is to be invested and the interest used for the relief of our worn out preachers and the widows and orphans of deceased ministers commends itself to our preachers and people and should awake in every bosom a desire to help it forward, and in order to get the matter properly before the whole Church,

Resolved, That all our Presiding Elders be requested to give prominence to it in their Quarterly Conferences and that all our pastors be and are hereby requested to present the claims to their several congregations at least once a year and ask for contributions to it.

Resolved, That we recognize with pleasure the presence with us of Dr. A. F. Watkins, the General Agent of this Fund, and hope that he will be given an opportunity to address the Conference in its interest to-day. And we also urge that our preachers and people co-operate with him as far as possible in his effort to raise money for the same.

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK SILER,
G. D. HERMAN,

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Your committee to whom was referred papers from the "Sunday League of America" and the question of Sabbath Observance, beg to report:

That in our opinion it is hardly necessary to admonish Methodist ministers of the sacredness of the Christian Sabbath and of their imperative duty to constantly bring this to the attention of our people. It is a lamentable fact that in many localities there is an increasing tendency to minimize the sacredness of that holy day. Let our preachers and people stand up to and support the Sabbath of our fathers, casting aside and dashing away, as a serpent, every temptation of this nature.

Resolved, That the "Sunday League of America" shall have our earnest and hearty support.

Resolved, That we request our Bishops to send three delegates to the "World Sunday Congress" from this Conference—two clerical and one lay—to meet at St. Louis, October 7th and 8th, 1904.

Respectfully,

W. R. WARE,
A. T. BELL,
W. W. STRINGFIELD,
J. A. B. FRY,
J. R. DuBOISE,
Committee.

Your Committee on District Conference Records begs leave to submit the following report:

We have carefully examined the records that were before us.

Asheville District Record.—This record does not show who presided at the sessions of either Friday session or that of Saturday afternoon. It is well kept; penmanship good, and mechanical arrangement excellent.

Charlotte District Record.—This record is well kept.

The Morganton District Record has been neatly kept. Some omissions in punctuation occur.

Statesville District Record.—There are some omissions in punctuation. In recording Saturday morning's report some words are omitted. Some blurs and some letters occur after the names in the roll, which should not. Otherwise it is moderately well kept.

The Waynesville District Record is in first-class condition.

Shelby District Record.—This record is neatly kept, but the penmanship is not very legible.

Franklin District Record.—A few errors occur in spelling, capitalization and punctuation. The penmanship and mechanical arrangement are good.

The Salisbury District Record is fairly well kept, except some blurs and blotches.

Mount Airy District Record.—This record is neatly kept. The writing is plain and easily read. Only one criticism can be made, and this we want to make in general, the secretary did not correct a small mistake in one of the resolutions. We think secretaries should correct mistakes in grammar and spelling, when recording reports and resolutions, and thus make our records correct, clear and accurate.

The Records of Greensboro and Winston Districts were not before us for examination.

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. WALL, Secretary.

J. H. BRENDALL, Chairman.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE TRUSTEES.

As Treasurer of the Conference Trustees to report the assets now in hand.

Some months ago Mr. H. N. Pharr, administrator of Mr. R. B. Weddington, deceased, settled up the estate and turned over to me the bequests coming to our Conference. These are as follows:

1,100 acres of land, valued at.....	$20,682.00
Cash	8,500.00
	<hr/>
	$29,182.00

Five of the farms now rent for $801.70.

The money received has all been loaned at six (6) per cent on first mortgage real estate security.

In October I inspected the farms and found them improved during the year so much that I rented them anew to the same tenants at a higher figure.

The Trustees recommend that $900 of the interest fund be paid to the Joint Board of Finance.

The Conference, by a vote, here amended the report to read as follows:

"That the Weddington estate, when disposed of, be divided as follows:

1. Ten thousand dollars to the Weddington Academy when titles are transferred to the Church.
2. One thousand dollars to the Brevard Epworth School.
3. Ten thousand dollars to the Conference Trustees, to be used for the benefit of the superannuate fund.
4. And the remainder be divided equally between Weaverville, Davenport and Rutherford Colleges.
5. That if the Conference Trustees deem it best, the said estate be left intact, for the present, and the proceeds be divided according to the above plan, if the will so allow.

(Signed) J. W. JONES,
M. H. HOYLE.

The Conference also owns fifty-five shares of stock in the Advocate Publishing Company, but we have received no dividends from it during the past two years.

(Signed) L. W. CRAWFORD,
Treasurer.
